HEARTY WINTER DWELLERS

Welcome back Ladies! We've got great news for you! The course is in outstanding shape and the weather is cooperating for an April Opening Day! Barring unforeseen circumstances, the course is set to open April 18th!

I hope this letter finds everyone happy and healthy and enjoying life to the fullest.

Again this year, I am looking forward to working with our amazing golf shop staff, including, Judy, Janet, Renée, Kyle, and Tug. Men's and Ladies Days have been arranged on our tee sheet, all of our tournaments are contracted and scheduled, and our new merchandise is ordered and displayed.

We've been contacting new residents to invite them to join in all the fun at Plumas Pines Golf Resort.

We look forward to seeing all you PPWGC members out enjoying the course!

ICE PUTTERS REIGN OVER WINTER PUTTING FESTIVAL

Winter residents Cathy Cianciolo, Mary Peters, Toni Conen, and Lana Janovick kept their golfing skills sharp by engaging in an ice putting tournament.

Games included pinball putting, distance putting and obstacle putting.

A great—though icy—time was had by all.

The ice putting champs retired to Lena's Cantina in Portola for lunch and refreshments after the grueling tourney!!

THE CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Hello everyone and welcome back for the Plumas Pines Ladies Golf Club 2013. It's going to be a fabulous year, full of outstanding games, wonderful friends and an all-around good time. The course is in excellent condition due to the light winter's snow, just waiting for us to get out there and beat it up.

Jackie Luckey, this year's co-captain, has generously offered to handle the Tuesday Play Day sign-ups and the scoring. Please try to sign-up in the ladies' room and if not, give Jackie a call as soon as you can. The staff at the Pro Shop is busy and may not be able to relay your message, so please use this as the absolute last resort.

Nine and Wines were a hit last year and should be a ball this season, too. Please call the club house to get on the list. Feel free to invite your spouses for cocktails and dinner afterwards. It's always a fun time.

Make sure you take advantage of your Ladies Club membership privileges throughout the season. These include rounds of golf for a guest on Tuesdays for reduced rates, and 20% off at Longboards on Tuesdays.

Our old nemeses, #4 and #13, have been rerated from the forward tees. The course should be set up on Tuesdays with the tee blocks back, but if a mistake is made, please play from the blocks. There is a "resort red" handicap that you can post to, making sure that your handicap is not adversely affected.

We'll have some fabulous new games this season, including

Buddy Day where you'll be able to play with the cart-mate of your choice!

As always, we have an outstanding committee for the Invitational: Mary Stonebraker, Pat Nichols and Jennifer Zumbro. Volunteers are always needed, but don't consider it work. You'll be having too much fun coming up with crazy ideas for the best three days of the 2013 season.

Captain Cathy Cianciolo
See you on the course!

Last Year's Invitational
Players Enjoying a Beautiful Day

I can't wait to get back out there, having sat out for the winter, but there is no excuse for you snowbirds not to show us all how it's really done. Let's get out there to play and make friends!

*The sun shines bright on my Plumas County home,
'Tis spring and the golfers are gay.
The greens are smooth and the fairways are so green,
I want to be golfing today.*

*Bogie not good ladies,
No double bogies today,
For pars are made when we keep a happy thought,
Let's all shoot a good score today.*

With apologies to Stephen Foster
